Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

A tonic-stimulant which keeps the old young and the young strong. It is invaluable for over-worked men, delicate women and sickly children. It cures consumption. Beware of cheap imitations and substitutes. They are dangerous. Guard against refilled bottles. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold by all druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, at $1.00 a bottle. Doctor's advice and illustrated medical booklet sent free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Clubs and Societies

Mrs. V. E. Karryle pleasantly entertained the members of the Y. M. B. club at her home on South Prospect street, Thursday afternoon. The time was passed with embroidery work, and refreshments were served. The only guests aside from the regular club members, was Mrs. W. J. Gorton. The club will meet again in two weeks with Mrs. Harry Green.

One of the most brilliant affairs of the month in local society circles was the bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. James F. Prendergast of East Church street.

The parlors of the pretty home were nicely decorated for the occasion, flowers and greens being placed throughout the room. In the bridge contests Mrs. C. C. Fisher won first honors and Mrs. M. Strelitz second honors. Both received handsome remembrances of the affair for their skill. Following the cards a dainty six o'clock dinner was served. The players were Mesdames M. J. Sullivan, James Bastable, H. B. Hane, O. Wollenweber, A. E. Cheney, C. C. Fisher, George Christian, J. C. Frederik Dombagh, John Darmody, M. Strelitz, William Seofield, E. K. Uhler, M. Turney, O. S. Rapp, W. G. Harding, C. L. LaMarche, J. T. Mathews, Miss Hane, Miss Alice Hane, and Mrs. H. W. Campbell, of Cincinnati.

The Bon Ton club met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Kearse on Bradford street Thursday afternoon with all members present. The hours from 2 to 5 were pleasantly passed at needlework and social intercourse. A feature of the occasion was a three course luncheon served by the hostess.

The next afternoon meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Kleinmaier on South State street. At the next evening meeting Mrs. W. A. Longdon and Mrs. F. D. McKinniss will be hostesses, entertaining at the home of the latter on East Center street.

The Missionary society of the German M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Frank Meyers on Cherry street last evening. The attendance was large and an interesting meeting resulted. A short business session was conducted in which general routine work was considered and a number of plans formulated for various functions to be carried out in the near future. At the conclusion of the business, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's church was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. F. J. Van Horn, Mrs. J. L. Shaw and Mrs. Rice at the home of the first named, on Delaware avenue. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed. The guests on this occasion were Mrs. Eva Wilson, Mrs. M. E. Wetmore and Rev. Mr. Mapes.

Mrs. Ellen Williams, Mrs. Burns Barker and Mrs. Isabelle Norris will entertain the guild at its next meeting.

The Tally Wags enjoyed another of their monthly seven-up parties, last night. About fifty members of the club attended the affair.

In a series of seven up games Fred Kramer and Fred Terpany won the largest number of games and were awarded the club prize. A lunch was served during an intermission in the card playing.

Miss Grace Queen, of Fountain street, was hostess to the members of the Young People's Christian Endeavor society of the Reformed church last night.

A very large number of the members attended the meeting. After a short business session, a communion supper was served. The menu cards contained commendments for each course and were productive of much amusement. A bean contest was won by Fred Sinning. Miss Minnie Little played several selections on the piano and a male quartette composed of Joe Neidhart, Asa Queen, John Hoffman and Joseph Keil rendered several numbers.

Clarence Keil, of South Main street, will next entertain the society.

At her pleasant home on South Vine street, a party composed of fifty members of the American Insurance Union surprised Mrs. Frank Bentz, last evening, in honor of her birthday anniversary.

The evening was spent at games, a number of interesting contests being enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Roecker entertained a few of their friends last evening at their home on South Main street, in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz, of Denver, Colorado. The evening was spent at cards. An elegant three course luncheon was served by the hostess.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Walters, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. William Kern, Mr. and Mrs. David Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz, Misses Louise Walters, Nida Miller, Eva Marshall, Laura Kern, Mrs. Ritzhaupt, Mrs. Kelleher, Mrs. Fies, Mrs. Trapp, Fred Walters, George Frank, Lee Swick, Harry Bishop and John Geislee.

The stag social and smoker given at the Commercial club, Thursday evening, was enjoyed by about 75 members and a number of invited friends. Cards were played during the evening, all of the contests being informal. Throughout the evening a trio of colored musicians rendered a pleasing program. Refreshments were served.

Among the guests were a number of visitors from Mansfield, who were here to attend a meeting of the Knights Templars. The social was given by a committee of which F. R. Saiter is chairman.

The T. A. B. club was entertained by Miss Trix Peaton at her home on Jefferson street last evening. In the midst of the social festivity the hostess perpetrated a complete surprise upon her friends by announcing her engagement to Harry Meredith, the wedding to take place in early September. The engagement was announced in a very novel way. A messenger boy delivered a dainty missive to Miss Bessie Dundore, who disclosed the news.

The evening was spent in a delightful social manner. An important feature of the occasion was a guessing contest in which Miss Mary Fogelson won the first prize. The hostess served a two-course luncheon. The Peaton home was tastefully decorated for the occasion in palms and carnations, the color scheme of green and white prevailing.

The guests upon the occasion were: Miss Mattie Meredith, Miss Mary Fogelson, Miss Velber Meredith, Miss Hazel Cooper and Miss Nadine Deatherage.

Miss Florence Lower pleasantly entertained the members of the M. O. B. Club at her home on Girard Ave.

yesterday evening. Practically all of the club members were present and a very delightful social meeting resulted. Cards, dancing and music were the principal social features of the occasion. The hostess served a dainty luncheon, at 10 o'clock. Miss Florence Hoffmeyer was the only guest of the club.

Miss Hazel Leeper of North State street will be the hostess to the club at its next meeting.

A number of Marion's elder society ladies met at the home of Mrs. W. W. King on North Main street yesterday afternoon and organized a social organization to be known hereafter as the G. T. club. The afternoon was pleasantly passed at progressive pado and other interesting social diversions. An elegant three course luncheon was served by the hostess. The club will meet again next week at the home of Mrs. John Crenshaw of Orchard street at which time officers will be elected and organization perfected.
